

Placement Information

Sample placement information for chatbot testing.

The placement cell may coordinate company visits, aptitude training, technical preparation, and career guidance.

Students should maintain updated academic and profile information when applying for placement activities.

Eligibility criteria and recruitment schedules vary by company and should be checked through official placement announcements.