

Library Rules

Sample library rules for chatbot testing.

Students should carry a valid student ID when using library services.

Books should be returned according to the due date shown in the library system.

Students should maintain silence and follow library staff instructions.

Current opening hours, borrowing limits, and fines should be confirmed with the official library.