

Student Handbook

Sample student handbook for chatbot testing.

Students can contact their department for academic questions and the college office for administrative services.

Common student services may include ID cards, certificates, examination support, scholarships, hostel services, and placement assistance.

Students should use official college communication channels for important announcements.