

Important Notices

Sample notices for chatbot testing.

Students should check official communication channels regularly for timetable and examination updates.

Scholarship application dates should be verified with the student welfare or scholarship department.

Placement announcements should be verified through the official placement cell.

These sample notices are not official college announcements.